Problem Solving: Servant Leadership

Summary: The team must transport the “character values” from a starting point to an ending.

Equipment: PVC pipe or foam pads, small balls

Time: 13 minutes total

Brief the group: 2 minutes

Exercise: 8 minutes

Reflection: 3 minutes

Balls Represents: Integrity, Respect, Responsibility, Sportsmanship, etc... Or, players that are getting through the season.

Directions:

- The ball(s) may not touch the ground and they must continue to move forward.
- Mark a starting point and an ending point.
- Once the team is ready to begin, place the ball(s) in the pipeline system.
- If a ball touches the ground, stops moving, or moves backward, the team must start again.

Facilitator Notes:

- You may give consequences. (blindfold or silence)
- Have the ending point be a small cup.
- Use several small cups for the ending point and require the group to distribute the balls evenly.

Processing the Ideas:

- Discuss the importance of servant leadership: Serving the common good. How did this group do in demonstrating servant leadership to all members of the team as they tried to transport the balls?
- How easy is it to lead by example in/out of season? (communication, behavior, following rules, etc...)
- How will SERVANT LEADERSHIP look on your team? Identify 3. Refer to Servant Leadership checklist.
- One team member writes and reports later.
